

Course Expectations Planning Guide

English

101 Freshman English

Please Note: All listed information is intended to provide a general guideline for students in planning their course load. All information provided will vary according to the individual study needs and academic motivation. Events and responsibilities may vary year-to-year.

Weekly Time Commitment

Calculated by surveying students to identify an approximate amount of time spent outside of the school day in order to be successful in this course

2-3 hours

Standard Responsibilities

Successful students may have the following responsibilities in order to be successful in this course:

We read a number of interesting and engaging texts in a variety of genres of fiction and non-fiction over the course of the year; students will be expected to complete and annotate these at home (after receiving guidance from the instructor). Students will learn to write many different kinds of effective compositions, practicing this skill in class and at home. Over the course of the year, students will practice their reading, writing, speaking, and listening skills - this means that students are expected to actively participate in class on a daily basis.

Significant Events

Students may expect some significant events that may be a part of this class.

-