

Course Expectations Planning Guide

English

103 Honors Freshman English

Please Note: All listed information is intended to provide a general guideline for students in planning their course load. All information provided will vary according to the individual study needs and academic motivation. Events and responsibilities may vary year-to-year.

Weekly Time Commitment

Calculated by surveying students to identify an approximate amount of time spent outside of the school day in order to be successful in this course

2-3 hours

Standard Responsibilities

Successful students may have the following responsibilities in order to be successful in this course:

This course is intended for talented and serious students who enjoy studying English, language, and literature. Students will participate in intense and independent in-depth study of a variety of literary genres. Students will also create a variety of effective compositions throughout the course of the year. Class requirements include research, at-home reading, presentations (group and individual), discussion, and several major investigations.

Significant Events

Students may expect some significant events that may be a part of this class.

-