

Course Expectations Planning Guide

English

105 Literature, Culture & Humanities

---

Please Note: All listed information is intended to provide a general guideline for students in planning their course load. All information provided will vary according to the individual study needs and academic motivation. Events and responsibilities may vary year-to-year.

Weekly Time Commitment

Calculated by surveying students to identify an approximate amount of time spent outside of the school day in order to be successful in this course

0-1 hours

Standard Responsibilities

Successful students may have the following responsibilities in order to be successful in this course:

Students will read a variety of material and appraise the works. They will also appraise visuals in different mediums with the focus on how each affects humanity. Students generally have 3-4 nights of homework a week and also have a mandatory outside school commitment known as the Taste of the Arts where they will go out and experience culture and write reviews on those experiences. Students will also have individual as well as group projects that will add to work load.

Significant Events

Students may expect some significant events that may be a part of this class.

Taste of the Arts which is an outside the classroom mandatory commitment. Students will have to complete anywhere from 2-4 a quarter. Usually there is one field trip in the spring.