Questions About Your Senior

Feel free to only answer questions relevant to your child and to be brief in your answers. Whatever you feel we should know is most important here!

1. Describe a major event that you see as a turning point in your son or daughter's development and explain why you view it as such.

2. Since entering high school, some of the most significant changes in my child have been:

3. My son or daughter's high school career has been pleasurable/painful because... (don't hesitate to address both aspects).

4. I am proud of my son or daughter because... (specific anecdotes are particularly welcome).

5. Is there anything you wish to add which would help us in writing a letter of recommendation (for example, educational background, family situation, medical history, family trauma, personal achievements, or other accomplishments that might not come across through grades, teacher comments, or conversations with your son or daughter)?

6. What are your son or daughter's greatest strengths?

7. Please list three adjectives to describe your child.

8. If there were a parent recommendation section on the college application, I would write:

9. My child is happiest when...

10. Is there anything that hasn't been addressed in these questions that you would like me to include in my statement?
