

Course Expectations Planning Guide

Life Skills

824 Interior Design/Housing

Please Note: All listed information is intended to provide a general guideline for students in planning their course load. All information provided will vary according to the individual study needs and academic motivation. Events and responsibilities may vary year-to-year.

Weekly Time Commitment

Calculated by surveying students to identify an approximate amount of time spent outside of the school day in order to be successful in this course

0-1 hour

Standard Responsibilities

Successful students may have the following responsibilities in order to be successful in this course:

Students will learn a variety of interior decorating and design concepts as they apply to the residential environment. Power of color; elements of design; accessorizing; lighting; textiles; floor plans; setting a beautiful table; designing and decorating various rooms of a house; creating a storyboard. Majority of activities completed in class; less than one hour per week of homework.

Significant Events

Students may expect some significant events that may be a part of this class.

Tablescape competition; guest speakers; field trip to designer showroom; decorating activities at home; completion of storyboard for final project. This course is hands-on learning -- students will complete a variety of projects.