

Digital Seminar

Digital Seminar: Historical Perspective

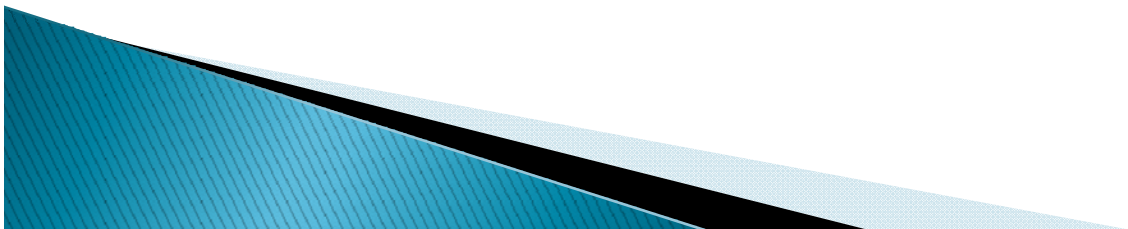

- Skills and content were cutting-edge when class was conceived
- Skills and content now essential, new cutting-edge skills
- Re-introduce for 2013–2014

Digital Seminar:

Purpose and goals

- Success in other classes
- Learn to use tools that transfer to other courses here and beyond
- Online learning experience
- Technology decision-making skills
- Take control of online presence and safety

Digital Seminar: Structure

- All content aligned to METS and NETS
- Taught within 6 core areas of study
 - Creativity and Innovation
 - Communication and Collaboration
 - Research and Information Fluency
 - Critical Thinking, Problem–Solving and Decision–Making
 - Digital Citizenship and Personal Safety
 - Technology Operations and Concepts

