

Mrs. Black's Bulletin

February 9-13, 2009

Dear Parents,

Valentine's Party:

Friday PM is the Valentine Party. We will celebrate at around 2:15pm. This is a very low key party. The students just enjoy a snack and enjoy opening and sharing their Valentines. Please make sure you remember your cards. Each child should receive a card from each student. If you need another list of classmates please let me know.

Don't forget an empty tissue box for Thursday.

Spelling:

We will do spelling this week.

Writing:

I am so excited to share with you how great the kids are doing with writing. They just learned how to write an exciting beginning. Ask them to tell you some of the ways to write an exciting beginning to a story.

Have a wonderful and safe vacation!

I am traveling with my daughter to Baylor University in Texas for a college visit. My son will be skiing in Vermont.(All fun!!)

Have a great week,
Mrs. Black
