

READER'S WORKSHOP

Unit 6

Character Study

Concept 1:

Readers relate characters to themselves and other characters.

- Readers identify characters by name.
- Reader's faces show emotion that comes from characters they read about.
- Readers identify character traits and flag pages to show what they think.
- Readers relate characters to themselves using character traits.
- Readers relate characters to other characters using character traits.

Concept 2:

Readers think and talk about characters to deepen comprehension.

- Readers flag pages to help them hold thinking about their characters.
- Reader's faces can show how they are thinking about a character.
- Readers think about how their characters are feeling.
- Readers reflect on their character's change and development over time.
- Readers include parts of text in their talk about the characters they talk about.