

Program of Studies

GPPS INTERDEPARTMENTAL

BEGINNING PROGRAMMING

.5 CREDIT

Prerequisite: Concurrent/previous enrollment in Algebra I

Computer Programming is the study of writing computer programs using a High Level Language C++. Writing computer programs helps to develop problem-solving skills. This course is designed for students with no knowledge of programming. It prepares students for additional courses in any other computer language.