

SCHOLARSHIP & FINANCIAL AID

1. Naviance - Login, click the colleges tab (top right), Click Scholarships and Money, click Scholarship list
2. www.Cappex.com Formerly Merit Aid.com. This is a meta scholarship search engine where students must create an account and can search scholarships according to the profile they have created
3. www.fastweb.org - Another site meta scholarship search engines but also great for parents that are looking for information to understand how to fund post-secondary education
4. <https://bigfuture.collegeboard.org/scholarship-search> This is the College Board's site to search for scholarships as part of the bigger picture of college research and funding college.
5. <https://smscholarships.com/naviance/nwidget.cfm?page=2&fvisit=true> The Sallie Mae National Scholarship search as integrated into Naviance - subscription required.
6. <https://www.collegexpress.com/scholarships/search> - College Express scholarship search. Narrow by category. Create an account. Save to your account.
7. <https://www.scholarships.com/scholarship-search> - Create a profile, get matched for scholarships, apply.
8. <https://www.chegg.com/scholarships> - It is a textbook seller website that morphed into college exploration, scholarship searching, and tutoring. Looking for every angle to capture the market.
9. <https://cfsem.org/scholarships/scholarship-opportunities/> Community Foundation of Southeast Michigan. Local awards from family foundations that often address specific needs.
10. <https://www.niche.com/colleges/scholarships/> Niche which we see for school search, and rankings offer scholarship search where you can create an account but you don't have to in order to see matches
11. <https://www.raise.me/> Raise Me is a site where students can create a profile as early as 9th grade and start applying for micro-scholarships. The proceeds from scholarships awarded stays put until the student graduates and reports where they are going to attend college. Then it is dispersed through the site.

<http://www.finaid.org/>

<http://www.meritaid.com/>

<http://studentaid.ed.gov/>