Shaq Surprises Florida Cop for Pickup Game With Kids After Viral Hoops Video (1490L)

Comprehension questions – answers may be in phrases.

1. What is a "slam dunk" as used in the text? an unusual success story

2. Explain the author's statement, "...the officer returned to the scene of the noncrime..."

the issue was never a problem or a crime in the first place

3. Define backup as used in the article.

bringing officers to play ball

4. What is a Shaq Attack?

a surprise from the basketball player

* 5. Define viral as used in the text. Define viral as used in the medical field.

insane amount of views / an illness caused by a virus such as Ebola

7/8.RI.1,2,3,4

Answer each question in one or more complete sentences and by providing complete explanations.

1. In your opinion, was the officer's ^{first} initial response to the noise complaint effective? Cite evidence from the text to support your claim.

claim
The officer really had two basic choices. One, he could go along with the complaint and cause a big scene, or he could develop a relationship with the kids. From the video, it's obvious Officer White went along with the kids. They opened up a door so the group of kids could make better choices and develop positive images of the police.

2. Explain Shaq's motive in playing ball with the cops and kids. (Why did he do this?) Cite evidence to support your explanation.

ing
The reader truly understands Shaq's motive after watching the video. Likely, Shaq's motive was to help the kids understand that he was me just like them, and they can do anything they want.

7/8.RI.1,3,5,8

this was expressed throughout the entire second video but not in the text.

3. Create a chart of the advantages and disadvantages of the use of video with this article. Provide a short explanation of your overall opinion regarding the use of video to support the text. Cite evidence from the text.

ADVANTAGES	DISADVANTAGES
1. true message from Shaq was in the video 2. no story w/o the first video 3. emotion only comes w/ the video	1. requires Internet 2. possibly the focus wasn't enough on the kids 3. required a bit of background text

Most articles contain supporting videos. However, this article had supporting text instead. Without video too, the reader would never have known Shaq's true motive.

4. Review the following statistics from Shaquille O'Neal's career.

played professionally from 1992-2011	total career minutes played - 41,918
age 20 in 1992-93 season	free throw percentage - .527% 52.7%
played in 1,207 games in his professional career	made 11,329 2-point field goals in his career started in 1,197 games in his pro career	made 1 3-point field goal in his pro career

Answer each question, show your math. Provide a brief explanation (bullets)

How many total points did Shaq score from 2-point field goals? FG x 2 Total Pts. $\frac{11329 \times 2}{}$ 22,658 points	How many total points did Shaq score from 3-point field goals? 3pt FG x # Total $\frac{1 \times 3}{}$ 3 points

Notes on my thoughts, reactions and questions as I read:

A Florida cop's heartwarming response to a noise complaint about kids playing basketball proved to be a slam dunk with someone who knows a thing or two about the game.

police officer

w/s uses alliteration

in title

makes title catchy

NBA all-star Shaquille O'Neal was among more than 14 million people who viewed video of Gainesville Police Officer Bobby White responding to a call about kids playing "loudly" in the street by joining the group in a game of hoops instead of shutting them down.

fact can be YouTube views

likely neighbors

cop played instead of disciplining

Hoops not crime

likely depends on where it's posted.

P.D. says "let kids be kids"

Notes on my thoughts, reactions and questions as I read:

usually the public sees the bad videos

Why did G.P.D. release this particular video?

Good P.R. (public relations) ?

opinion young & could easily forget although most of us agree

What is the complainer thinking?
