Notes:

Monday PLC: At our Staff Development we talked about completing the Empowerment Continuum on page 10-11 in your Aligning Academic Guide Book. This PLC is set aside for you to complete the continuum and confirm your accountability partner.

Classroom Observations: My big rock this month is to do formal classroom observations. Please feel free to schedule a time. If not it will be an unannounced observation. Please remember we will need to meet for a post conference right after the observation. For the post conference you will need to have your reflections completed on the evaluation form. Thanks everyone!
